This resource is Biblically sound and created with great care to share God's word with young learners. It includes

- A Mini-Lesson Plan to follow
- Full size (color and B/W) for teachers as you highlight the story with your class.
- Mini Books for you to print for your students.
- A Sequencing Game – Cut the cards apart and challenge your students to put the story in order.

Instructions

- Print the teacher book on cardstock and laminate for durability. (If using the B/W option, take some time to color it.)
- Print, cut and staple the student books on regular paper.
- I strongly recommend that you open up your Bible while you share this book with your students, so they understand that the whole story comes from the Bible.
- Later, your students can color these mini books and take them home to share with their family. Encourage the parents of your students to read these together and allow their child to share what they learned that week.

Happy Teaching!

Adam and Eve

Genesis 1-3

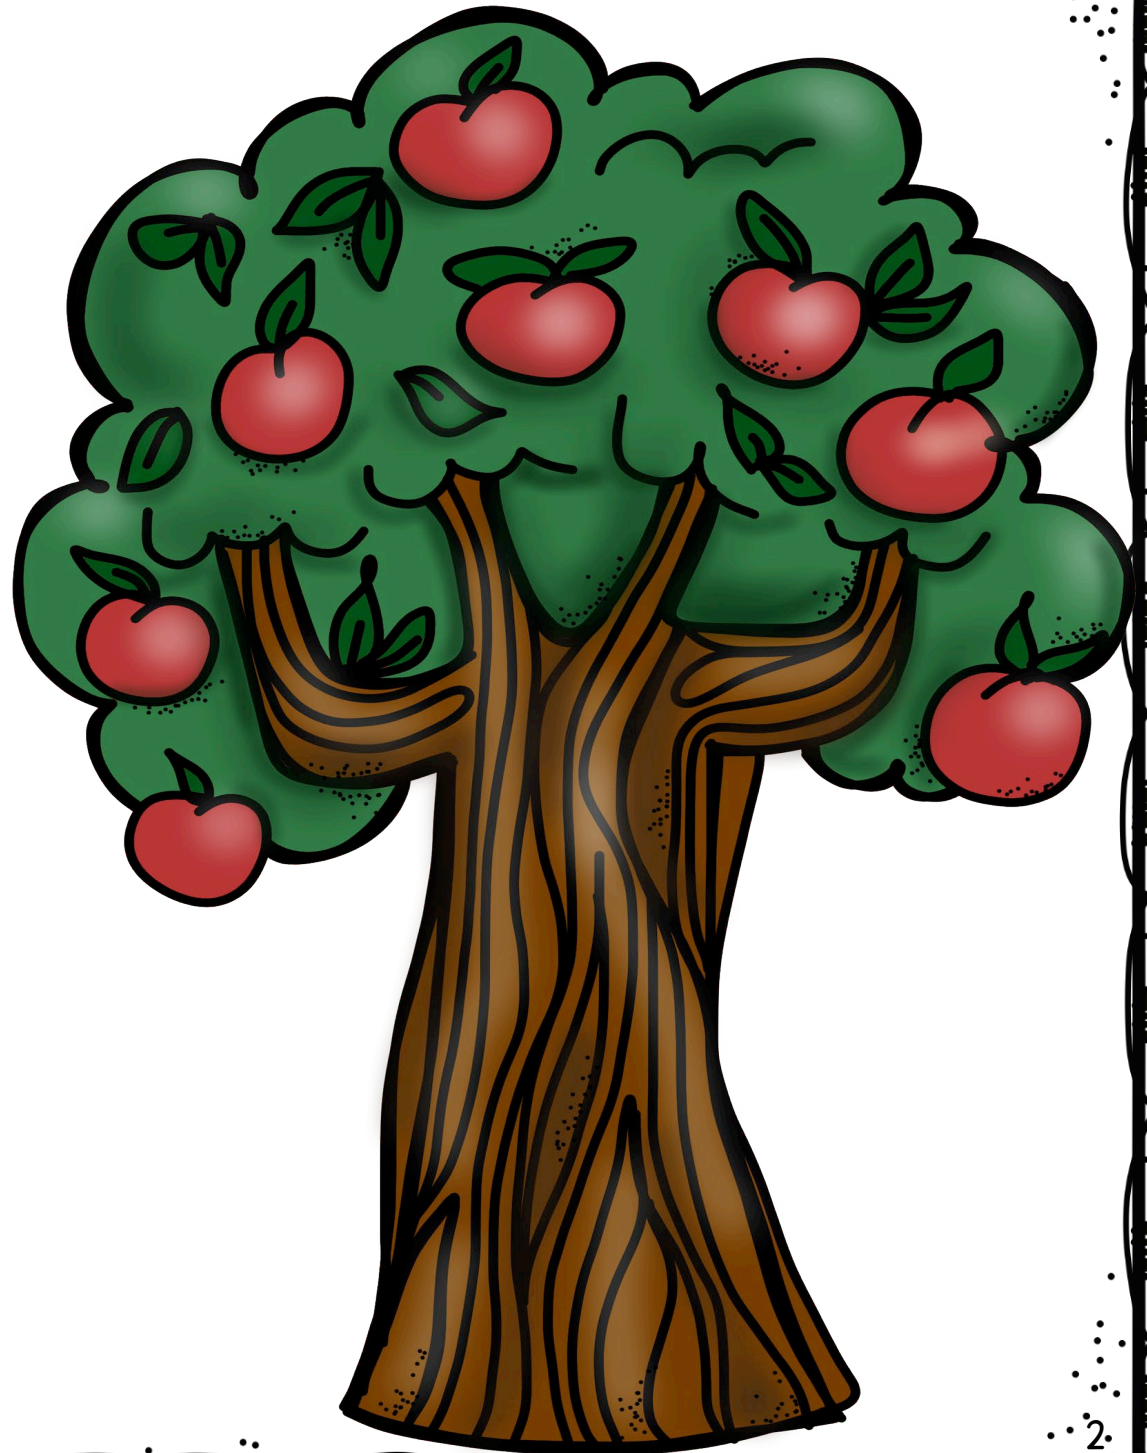

Adam and Eve were the first man and woman God created. God made them a home in a beautiful garden called Eden. It was paradise, filled with beautiful plants to look at and delicious fruit to eat. Best of all, God walked and talked with them each day.

Adam and Eve were so happy and loved God very much. God told Adam and Eve that they could eat anything in the Garden of Eden, except the fruit from one tree, the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil. If they obeyed, they would never die.

Along came a sneaky snake. The snake was once one of God's angels who had become God's enemy. He had disguised himself as a snake to try and trick Adam and Eve into sinning against God. The snake was evil and knew that if he could get Adam and Eve to eat from the Tree of Knowledge, they would be separated from God. The snake convinced them to eat the forbidden fruit.

Immediately, Adam and Eve realized that something was different. They were ashamed and tried to hide from God. When God asked what had happened, they lied and blamed each other. Adam and Eve chose to disobey God and brought sin into the world. God's perfect creation was no longer perfect. Because of their sin, Adam and Eve had to leave the Garden of Eden and were separated from God.
